

Instructions for NHI Prepaid Medical Expense Reimbursement Application Form

1. Please note:

- (1) The insured person should fill out the form completely; the group insurance unit should submit the application to the accepting unit.
- (2) The group insurance unit is requested to make copies of the application form for its needs, or may request forms from a Bureau of National Health Insurance (BNHI) branch.
- (3) Persons at least 20 years of age who are mentally and physically competent must submit an application for themselves, and may not designate a payer. A legal agent must apply on behalf of persons less than 20 years of age and attach personal identification documents. A legal heir may apply if the original person has died; the heir must attach personal identification documents and a statement.
- (4) If the group insurance unit prepays medical expenses, the insured person is requested to make a written statement designating the group insurance unit as the payment recipient.
- (5) If the case involves a major injury or illness, one photocopy of a document verifying the major injury or illness must be attached.
- (6) Please fill out the payment address carefully so as to facilitate issuance of the refund.
- (7) Starting from April 1, 2006 (hospital discharged date), when an insured applies for a refund for prepaid medical expenses for at least five days of hospitalization in China, and a BNHI branch considers that the case requires verification, before the application can be accepted, a concerned party must have the required medical verification documents (including original medical expense receipts, itemized expense lists, diagnostic statements, and other verifying documents) first notarized at a notary office in China, and must apply bearing the original notarization certificate to the Straits Exchange Foundation (phone: 02-2713-4726; <http://www.sef.org.tw>) for certification, and must complete certification documents.

2. Necessary conditions: An insured may apply for the refund of insured medical expenses in any of the following situations:

- (1) If the insured has not joined the NHI program in accordance with the regulations of the National Health Insurance Act (herein referred to as "this Act"), and has been punished with a fine and temporary suspension of insurance payments in accordance with Article 69-1 of this Act, the insured prepays for medical care expenses at an insured medical service organization during the period of suspension of insurance benefits, and has already paid all fines and insurance premiums in full.
- (2) If the insured has been provisionally refused insurance payments in accordance with Article 30, Paragraph 3 of this Act, the insured prepays for medical care expenses at a contracted health provider during the period of provisional refusal of insurance benefits, and has already paid all insurance premiums and overdue payment in full.
- (3) If the insured has failed to pay co-payments in accordance with Articles 33 and 35 of this Act, and has been provisionally refused insurance premiums, the insured prepays for medical care expenses at a contracted health provider during the period of suspension of insurance premiums, and has already paid all fines and insurance premiums in full.
- (4) The insured has failed to submit any certificate on exemption of co-payment to a contracted health provider within seven working days after the day being treated in accordance with Article 6 of this Act.
- (5) One of the following situations applies and the case meets the requirements of Article 2 of the National Health Insurance Emergency Injury or Illness Prepaid Medical Expense Refund Regulations (herein referred to as the "Refund Regulations"):
 - I. Within an area where NHI is in force, the insured is unable to go receiving care at a contracted health provider due to an emergency injury or illness, and must seek care at a nearby non-contracted health provider.
 - II. Within an area where NHI is in force, the insured is unable to go for delivery care at a contracted health provider due to emergency circumstances, and must go to a non-contracted health provider, or asks an approved physician or midwife to assist the delivery.
 - III. Within an area where NHI is not in force (including foreign countries and China), the insured suffers an unexpectedly injury, illness, or emergency delivery, and must go to a local medical organization for care or delivery.
- (6) In accordance with Article 35, Paragraph 2 of this Act and Article 64, Paragraph 3 of this Act's enforcement rules, the insured's co-payments of hospitalization for the year exceed 10% of the average per capita income during the most recent year.

3. Accepting units:

- (1) In cases meeting the conditions of Subparagraphs 1~4 of Paragraph 2 above, please submit an application to the BNHI branch with jurisdiction over the place of the hospital or clinic of treatment.
- (2) In cases meeting the conditions of Subparagraph 5 of Paragraph 2 above, please submit an application to the BNHI branch with jurisdiction over the place of the group insurance unit.
- (3) In cases meeting the conditions of Subparagraph 6 of Paragraph 2 above, please submit an application to BNHI branch with jurisdiction over the place of the first hospital or clinic of treatment.

4. Standards of the refund: The insurer shall process refunds in accordance with NHI Medical Expense Review and Payment Regulations and the National Health Insurance Emergency Injury or Illness Prepaid Medical Expense Refund Regulations.

5. Ways of refunds: After approval of the expenses, the BNHI branch shall mail a check to the insured or remit the payment to the account of the insured or insured's legal agent by bank transference.
